POPE'S INTENTION FOR

Evangelization ~ that Christian communities, especially those who are persecuted, feel that they are close to Christ and have their rights respected.

Please note the 5pm Mass on Tuesdays at St Cuthbert Mayne Church will now be at 7pm instead. This would allow for those who work to attend Mass if they so wish.

Launceston: After discussions with the parishioners at Callington, Fr John is considering changing the 5pm Sunday evening Mass to a morning Mass at 8.30am starting from Easter. Therefore, it would help Fr John if the 10am Mass at Launceston could be moved to a later start of 10.30am instead. Fr John would like to know how you feel about this. Please speak to him or pass your comments onto the Parish Office.

Easter Flowers – some of our flower arrangers will be away over Easter, therefore we are asking for volunteers to come along and help decorate our church on Holy Saturday 20th April, for the celebration of Easter. We will be planning the Easter Flowers in the hall, after Mass on 31st March.

Please join us if you can help. No special skills needed – just enthusiasm and a wish to help with this special celebration. Thank you.

Don't forget to look at the Noticeboard:

For Lent this year why not take home one of CAFOD's Loose change boxes with you and help those who are in need. Fill the box with your spare change and when you're ready, return it to the parish office where all loose change donations will be sent to CAFOD. The box will then be returned to you so you can continue collecting. Please find them at the back of the church with Gift Aid forms, please sign one if you can.

Week 3 of the 'Love in Action' programme is about the Catholic Social Teaching: Solidarity Solidarity and Communion are intrinsic to our Catholic faith. Family, Community, Church, Social responsibility are all Part of our Christian discipleship. Every time we come to Mass, we receive Holy Communion, which is both a deeply personal communion with the Lord, and also Communion with one another., the body of Christ. The Communion we share is a sign of what all people are called to, in recognising each other as brothers and sisters, and the responsibility we have for one another, especially those in most need.

The first reading today tells us of the God of our ancestors who enters into the history of a suffering people and leads them out of a land of slavery to a land flowing with milk and honey.

The Gospel parable of the fig tree reminds us of God's mercy, while also calling us to repentance from sinful Ways and attitudes, and to see where we can bear fruit as God's people.

'May we not allow ourselves to be robbed of the ideal of fraternal love.' Pope Francis.

Bude:	sessions follow 10am Mass on Wednesday.
Launceston:	sessions every Thursday in the Charles Langdon Room at 6pm.
Callington:	sessions follow 10am Mass on Fridays
