‘A Precious Place of God’s Grace’

In addition to the above document sent out at the end of last year, there is now a Parish self-assessment tool (document) which is meant to highlight the ways that the parish is living out its mission, how it is working to fulfil that mission, and what areas need further development and growth. The document was sent out to the Parish by email but if anyone would like a hard copy then please contact Naomi. You are welcome to send other comments to Naomi via email or to the Presbytery, which will be collated, but this is meant as a conversation, rather than a tick box exercise. It would have been far preferable to meet in person, but needs must, given our present Covid-related circumstances.

Join Fr John for Morning Prayer via Zoom this Saturday 16th January at 10am. It will follow the morning prayer from the Universalis. Click on this link Universalis to access the daily prayer or to download the app. Details for the Zoom meeting have been sent out by a separate email, please check your inbox.

Mental Health and Covid-19

The ongoing pandemic will cause many people to feel stress and anxiety. Caritas Plymouth has put together a range of resources to guide Catholics in looking after their mental health including access to prayer resources and links to organisations offering support.

Message from Fr John

For family reasons Naomi has decided to move away from Launceston to be nearer to her daughters. She will therefore be resigning from her post as parish secretary. We will get an opportunity to thank Naomi properly in due course. However, I do thank Naomi for all the wonderful work she has done for our parish. This past year, particularly, has presented many unexpected challenges. Naomi has done an enormous amount in organising stewards, volunteers, and protocols in enabling our churches to open for Masses. Naomi has done all this very efficiently, and on top of her more routine work.

I will soon be advertising for a new parish secretary. If you are aware of anyone who might be interested and suited to this role, please make them aware that an advert will soon be appearing.

Thank you for all the hats, scarves, and gloves which were donated for the homeless before Christmas, it was very much appreciated. Liz will be making another trip to Truro at some stage, so it's not too late to donate, so keep knitting. Parishioners at Bude and Callington please hand them to Fr John or send them to the Presbytery. Those of you who would like to help but without the knitting, you are very welcome to donate gloves, hats, and scarves. Thank you.
