Message from Fr John:

Bishop Mark has informed us that Bishop Christopher has recently been diagnosed with cancer. 'He is in good spirits and, you will not be surprised to hear, is approaching things in a very deep disposition of faith and with a great love for the Lord. He is to undergo an important procedure on 26th May and I know he will be grateful for your prayer in this time leading up to that, on the day itself, and in the time afterwards, when he will need some ongoing treatment.'

Today, being Pentecost Sunday, I will be recommissioning Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion with a simple prayer, and there will be a blessing for Readers. As we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles, and the beginning of the life of the Church, it is a particularly good time to do this, as restrictions are being eased and more life is returning to our communities. It will be a joy to be able to take Communion to our housebound parishioners on a more regular basis again. We are in need of more ministers of Communion, especially those who could take Holy Communion to a sick/housebound person. Please let me know if you are able to help in this way. We will not yet be reintroducing Communion under both kinds in the church.

All being well, the scaffolding will be removed from inside St Cuthbert Mayne Church tomorrow. You will notice that the painted areas of the church have been repainted, and the ceiling has been repaired. We are very grateful to the builders and decorators that despite all the work that has been going on in and around the church these past few months, they have ensured that the church has been available for Sunday Masses. We will be returning to the church for weekday Masses from Tuesday of this week. There is still work to be done over the summer, including the work on the east end of the church, the heating, lighting, and repair and maintenance of the flooring. Thank God, good progress is being made.

I will be going on holiday from June 1st – 25th. Meeting up with my priest friends for the first time in a long time. Fr David (Canon David Annear) will be returning to cover for me while I am away. It will be good to see him back again in the parish he loves, and which he served so generously for many years.

We have received a further £24,000 from Noreen Tout's estate. This is in addition to the very large legacy already received from her estate. Noreen was a faithful parishioner of this parish for many years and died several years ago. She is buried in our churchyard. We are very thankful to God and to Noreen, who has been such a generous benefactor. Do please keep her in prayers.

From May 17th some things can change: We are now permitted to reintroduce the Prayer of the Faithful, as we will do this Sunday. Also, the priest is permitted to announce 'The Body of Christ' when giving Communion to each communicant.

The numbers of people permitted to attend funerals are relaxed. We are now able to have as many people as can fit in the church with social distancing. Kit's daughter, Angela, has said that those of you wishing to attend Kit Cowling's Requiem Mass on Tuesday are welcome.

Please remember food banks, collection points can be found at all supermarkets. Please do what you can.

SPUC Pro-Life Chain 2021

On Saturday 29 May, between 11.00am and 1.00pm, the Society for the Protection of Unborn Children (SPUC) is holding a silent act of witness, the Pro-life Chain, to commemorate 53 years of legalised abortion and to call for at-home DIY abortions to end immediately.

The Chain will be taking place at Truckle Valley, Camelford, near the BP Garage, on the A39. Pro-lifers will hold placards with messages which draw attention to the truth and reality of abortion, which will be witnessed by passing motorists. The placards also advertise a post-abortion counselling helpline which offers help and support to anyone suffering in the aftermath of an abortion experience.

You are very welcome to come and join the Chain. The organiser is Tony Mullett, who can be contacted on 01840 213787 or at tonymullett@btinternet.com

Happy Feast Day.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you will renew the face of the earth.
