Pope's Intention for the month of April:
For the role of women

Let us pray that the dignity and worth of women be recognised in every culture, and for an end to the discrimination they face in various parts of the world.

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter, which concludes the Octave of Easter

Divine Mercy Sunday focuses on the gift of mercy and love given through Christ's death, burial, and resurrection. As St John Paul II stated, "Divine Mercy reaches human beings through the heart of Christ crucified."

Thank you

Our Church celebrations would not be possible without the commitment & hard work of a lot of people. A big thank you to all who have prepared and given so much for our Triduum celebrations.

A very big thank you to our musicians, singers, sacristans, readers, extraordinary ministers and team of Altar Servers for all your support during Holy Week and Easter. We are very blessed to have you in our churches, and all the support you give. If you would like to volunteer to help in anyway way in the Sunday Liturgies please speak with Father John. Altar servers need to have made their First Holy Communion.

Cashless Giving: Coming to Launceston soon...

We have just received our new giving station and will start trialing cashless giving in the next few weeks. This will initially be in Launceston as there WiFi in Church, but we will be rolling it out to try at both Bude and Callington. If successful we have a giving station in each church by the summer.

The giving stations will allow donations to loose plate, second collections and for book or votive sales.

To try it in each church we would need one or two volunteers who can take responsibility for making sure the machine is set up before each Mass and to explain how it is used to anyone who needs help. Full training would be given. If you would be interested in doing this, please speak to Fr John or email Clare on launceston@prcdtr.org.uk.

Pilgrimage to Buckfast Abbey

We are planning a coach trip/pilgrimage to Buckfast Abbey in the summer. We are looking at the week of the 15th July leaving Bude at 9am (then stopping at Launceston and Callington), returning to Bude around 5:30pm. Cost of coach will be £15 per person. We will visit the Abbey Church, and grounds, celebrate Mass, have lunch at the Grange, and visit the Exhibition Centre. The Monastic Way Exhibition is an immersive presentation of Benedictine monastic life, from its origins to the present day. The meal and Exhibition Centre (£2) will be extra costs for those who want them.

Ideally, we would like to take a 39-seater coach. We need to (almost) fill it, to make it affordable. This is advanced notice that there will be a list at the back of our churches from this weekend to see how many people are interested.

The next Parish Pastoral Committee meeting will be on Sunday 21st April. If you have any thing you would like them to discuss please speak to your Church Rep or email Clare. Your Church Reps are – Launceston: John Ashdown and Mariusz Wisniewski; Bude: Monica Soby; Callington: Rob Cain and Rita Taylor.

"From the elderly we received the gift of belonging to God's holy people. The Church, as well as society, needs them, for they entrust to the present the past that is needed to build the future." Pope Francis

AGEING IN THE SOUTHWEST CHALLENGES & OPPORTUNITIES

Do you wonder what the future may hold for us as we age?

Would you like an opportunity to help others?

All are welcome to join us for a day of prayer, discussion and reflection to explore the theme of an ageing society and how we can respond.

Recycle 4 Chrity Ink Cartridge Box

There is a new ink cartridge collection box, next to the orange box, in the Church Hall at St Cuthbert Mayne.

If you have old printer cartridges you can recycle them here to raise money for the Catholic Childrens Society Plymouth.

You can fund out more about how the scheme works at <https://www.recycle4charity.co.uk/>

We currently have a vacancy for a representative of St Peter's on the Parish Finance Committee. If anyone would be interested in finding out more about this role, please speak to Fr John or contact Clare in the Office. The committee meets four times a year and there is the option to attend via zoom.

Legion of Mary Acies Ceremony

Saturday the 13th of April after the 10.00am Mass in Launceston.

The Annual Legion of Mary Acies Ceremony for Plymouth Diocese, to renew the act of Consecration to Our Lady. Including the Holy Rosary, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction.

Anyone who is interested in joining the Legion of Mary or who just want to find out more about their spirituality is welcome to attend.

The parish is immensely grateful to all donors who have supported the parish during the year and helped keep our doors open to achieve our Mission. If you don't already do so, please consider whether you could increase the value of your contribution by signing up for Gift Aid (more details and forms available from your parish gift aid organiser or the Cathedral office).

CAFOD – At present we have no CAFOD representative at Our Lady of Victories Church in Callington. If you would be interested in this role please speak to Fr John.

Coffee and Tea after Mass:

This takes place after each of our Sunday Masses. It is an opportunity to meet others and build community. All are welcome

The Legion of Mary, a pious organisation in church dedicated to praying the rosary and propagating the gospel welcomes new members to her weekly meetings held every Sunday at 9:am in the upper room at St Cuthbert Mayne Launceston

Our Lady Queen of Peace (OLQOP) Online Prayer Group

OLQOP Prayer Group meet online every Monday evening at 7pm – 8pm, all are welcome. Each week we pray one of the mysteries, followed by some special prayers from Pope Francis, a bible reading relating to the rosary mystery followed by one of Our Lady's messages from Medjugorje. The meeting concludes with The Divine Mercy Chaplet.

If you would like to join us, please either email mark@pearsononline.org or call Mark on 01566 782647.
