Day for Life 2024

16th June

The Church teaches that life is to be nurtured from conception to natural death. In England and Wales, Day for Life is celebrated on the third Sunday of June each year. This year it falls on 16 June. The theme is The Lord is my Shepherd – Compassion and Hope at the End of Life.

A debate on end-of-life issues has been in the headlines in recent months with calls for assisted suicide being expressed, especially by celebrities, a view that opposes the Catholic view that life is a gift and that we are called to care for others at the end of their lives.

There will be a retiring collection for Day for Life on the 15th/16th June.

The Shape of Authentic Hope:

Wednesday 26th June

In this difficult, disillusioned age, why do we need the Church? In preparing for the Jubilee year 2025, Pope Francis has asked us to explore the key documents of Vatican II. Bill Keimig, Deputy Director of the Catechetical Institute Franciscan University of Steubenville, in his visit to the UK, will be speaking to us on the document on the Church (Lumen Gentium: A light to all peoples). Come and join us at Schiller Hall, Buckfast Abbey on Wednesday June 26th 6-8pm. The event will begin at 5pm with tea/coffee and chance to connect and chat with Bill and his team. A year of Encounter: Call for action with your parish at the general election

With a UK general election on the 4th of July, politicians will be looking for our vote

We have a responsibility as Catholics to make sure political parties commit to taking action to tackle poverty and injustice. Raising our voices and contacting parliamentary candidates as a parish community will send a strong signal to those standing for election in our local constituencies.

If you would like to join a small group and are willing to contact candidates standing in your constituency as a parish group then please join our Zoom call on Tuesday 18th June at 7.00pm.

General Election 2024

The Prime Minister has called a general election for Thursday, 4 July. There is a range of information and guidance on key issues of importance to us, as Catholics, to help inform how we vote. Gospel values inform how we look at the world as Christians. These values can also offer a different way of looking at politics, a way that puts the common good before self-interest. The Catholic Bishops' Conference has guidance on issues such as criminal justice, poverty, migration, education, international relations, life issues and the environment <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/election24/>. CAFOD and SVP have also produced a joint resource 'Year of Encounter' with a range of questions to ask potential candidates <https://svp.org.uk/encounter>.

If you haven't registered to vote in the general election, you must do so by 23:59 on Tuesday, 18 June 2024. If you are eligible, you can do so here: gov.uk/register-to-vote. You can also apply for a postal vote if eligible. Photo ID is necessary in order to be permitted to vote. This link gives more information: gov.uk/apply-for-photo-id-voter-authority-certificate
