Pope's Intention for the month of August For Political Leaders

Let us pray that political leaders be at the service of their own people, working for integral human development and the common good, taking caring of those who have lost their jobs and giving priority to the poor.

St Cuthbert Mayne Way

A Pilgrim Way from the Cathedral of St Mary and St Boniface in Plymouth to St Cuthbert Mayne will be walked over three days on September 12th, 19th and the 3rd of October.

It is a total distance of 36 miles and is a rolling path with plenty of climbs, descents and two river crossings, one by a ford and the other a short train journey. Stout walking shoes/boots and appropriate clothing for all weather will be required.

Anyone wishing to participate please contact Clare in the office by email launceston@prcdtr.org.uk or John Ashdown j.ashdown56@btinternet.com by 29th August.

Thursday Welcome Club

Every Thursday 9:30 – 12noon, St Cuthbert Mayne hall

There is a friendly free coffee morning every Thursday after morning Mass in St Cuthbert Mayne hall. It is open to both our parishioners and the wider community and is starting to be well attended by both.

If you are in Launceston on a Thursday morning, please feel free to pop along. There are toys available should you have small children.

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Friday August 15

Reflection

On this holy day, we rejoice in the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven, body and soul—a singular privilege granted by God. Mary, the faithful handmaid of the Lord, who bore Christ into the world and remained with Him to the foot of the Cross, is now crowned Queen of Heaven.

Her Assumption is a sign of God's promise to all the faithful: that we too are called to eternal life. In Mary, we see the fullness of redemption already realized, and through her maternal care, we are drawn closer to her Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer

O Mary, assumed into heaven,
you shine forth as a sign of hope and consolation.
Intercede for us with your Son,
that we may live lives of faith, humility, and love,
and one day share in the glory of your risen body.
Mother of God, pray for us now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.
