Apostolic Exhortation Dilexi te of the Holy Father Leo XIV on Love for the Poor

Dilexi te invites all believers to rediscover the heart of the Gospel in love, especially love for the poor and forgotten. Pope Leo XIV calls the Church to unite deep faith with concrete compassion, so that mercy becomes our witness to Christ.

Anti-Slavery Week

13th–19th October

In this Jubilee Year of renewal and hope, we are called to “proclaim liberty throughout the land” (Lev. 25:10) by confronting the injustices of modern slavery. Observing this week is a way to live the Gospel call to love our neighbour and work for a world where all can live in dignity. Contact Caritas Diocese of Plymouth to learn how you can help to eliminate this evil.

Prisoners' Sunday: 12th October

Prisoners' Sunday is the National Day of Prayer and Action for prisoners and their dependents as marked by the Catholic Church and across the Christian denominations. Today we reflect on how we as individuals, as a Church, and as a community are serving those affected by imprisonment.

Universalis

www.universalis.com

Universalis Publishing was started in 1995 with the aim of harnessing computer technology to help in enriching the spiritual life of Christians, specifically by making the liturgical and devotional resources of the Catholic Church available on the new electronic media.

The Liturgy of the Hours is now available on the web site and as apps, downloads and e-books, and so is the Mass: both the readings at Mass and the unique "Mass Today" page which combines the Order of Mass with the prayers and readings in one continuous stream.

Coffee and Tea after Mass:

This takes place after each of our Sunday Masses. It is an opportunity to meet others and build community. All are welcome
